Bio:

Julie works with BCA National Training Group delivering training in Frontline Management, Cert IV Business, Cert IV Finance, Cert IV in Business (Governance) and Diploma of Finance.

Julie has many years experience in the Business sector with management roles in Human Resources, Finance, Project, Management, Marketing and Training. She is currently part of a volunteer business mentoring program and gives several hours every week to mentoring small organizations in business management processes.

As well as working for organisations such as Thorn EMI (Assistant Accountant), ICL Computers (Training Co-ordinator), Ayers Rock Council (Acting Town Clerk/Project Manager) and The Alice Springs Town Council, she has recently worked as a tax accountant and business advisor in public practice.

Julie has an approachable and down to earth problem solving style which would facilitate Board review in small to medium organisations.

Julie is a very effective small group facilitator with expertise in financial, budgeting, small organization accounting and government practice. Julie would be a valuable contributor to a management committee wanting to improve its budgeting, financial reporting or its performance management at a Board/ Executive level. She is a skilled facilitator who will help a Board define its challenges and build strategies to address them.
