

ZERO TOLERANCE

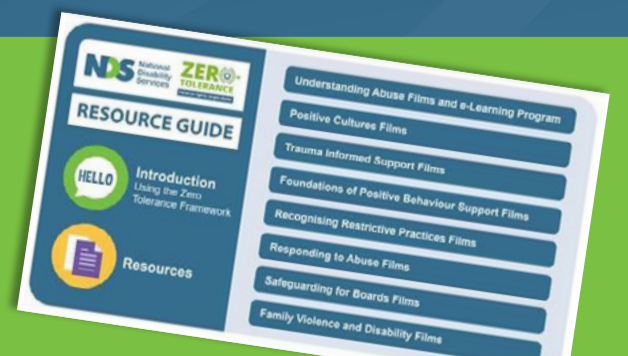

Focus on rights, target abuse

The NDS Zero Tolerance initiative assists disability service providers to understand, implement and improve practices, which safeguard the rights of people they support.

Zero Tolerance is an organisational and personal commitment to act on:

- anything that makes a person with disability be or feel unsafe
- anything that doesn't support a person's human rights
- anything that we could be doing better

Download the Zero Tolerance Resource Guide today!

nds.org.au/resources/zero-tolerance